

Intermediate Structures

- He bought a book.
- He bought a good book.
- He bought a very good book.
- A book is on the desk
- A good book is on the desk.
- A very good book is on the desk.
- *Good book is on the desk. Not an NP
- *Very good book is on the desk. Not an NP

170

Anaphoric Evidence

- I like this very good book better than that one.
- I like this very good book better than that very good book.
- I like this very good book better than that book.
- Very good book is a constituent.

172

Conjoining

• رفت و آمد سفید و سیاه قلم و دفتر

- These very good books and very interesting pencils are mine.
- Mary is a very pretty girl and very good cook.
- These very tall men and very short women do not get on well.

171